Goods and Services Tax

In terms of GST provisions regarding Input Tax Credit Availment conditions and Notification No 49/2019-Central Tax dated 9th October 2019 and Circular No. 123/42/2019- GST dated 11th November 2019 (F. No. CBEC - 20/06/14/2019 - GST) and as amended from time to time the GST Input Tax Credit (ITC) availment has been restricted as specified in terms of sub-rule (4) of rule 36 of CGST Rules, 2017 if there is a delay in filing GSTR 1 beyond due date, and ITC would not be available. DIAL shall be downloading the GSTR 2A Report on or after the due date of filing GSTR 1 by suppliers (i.e. 11th of subsequent month for suppliers who file monthly return), for claiming ITC available for a particular month. The supplier shall file GSTR 1 and GSTR 3B within due dates to enable DIAL to avail ITC within stipulated timelines.

Therefore GSTR 1 must be filed on or before the due date by the Supplier, incorporating the invoice issued to DIAL with all the particulars correctly mentioned, in order to enable DIAL to claim GST ITC of the invoice issued to DIAL. In case of non-adherence/non-compliance DIAL shall be entitled to withhold sums due to the supplier and reserve the right to recover interest on capital paid by us due to non-compliance at supplier's end.

a) On account of change of law and introduction of the GST and in the event any tax/duty exemption is directly allowed to the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider or its vendors/sub-contractors and is thereby converted to a refund to the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider, then the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider shall be obligated within 30 working days, to adjust the amount so refunded to the extent applicable to DIAL's contract sum.

In the event the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider fails to comply with the aforesaid within 30 working days, then DIAL shall be within its right to adjust the refunded amount once known to DIAL, from any payment due by DIAL to the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider. However, if DIAL is unable to adjust the entire such amount for any reason then the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider shall be bound to immediately pay the unadjusted amount, as notified by DIAL, without any protest, delay or demur.

b) It is expressly agreed between the parties that they would provide all documents, challans, returns, certificates, etc. as may be reasonably required by the other party to support the claim for refund.

Right of adjustment in case of failure to comply with GST

Notwithstanding anything contrary contained herein, it is hereby agreed and understood by the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider that it shall be under an obligation to submit the requisite documentary evidence substantiating that the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider has complied with the requirements of GST provisions. It is clarified that in the event of failure to comply with the same, the payment of GST mentioned in the invoice including any interest, charges, penalty, etc. payable thereon by DIAL to the governmental authorities, shall be adjusted while releasing the payment by DIAL to the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider. However, if DIAL is unable to adjust the entire such amount for any reason, then the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider shall be bound to immediately pay the unadjusted amount, as notified by DIAL, without any protest, delay or demur.

Indemnification

The supplier/seller/vendor/service provider shall protect, defend, indemnify and hold harmless DIAL, its agents and employees, during the term and thereafter, from and against:

- i. Any statutory liability including but not limited to any claims raised, interest, sanctions, penalties imposed by the governmental authority or suffered by DIAL due to the non-compliance of the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider of the GST provisions.
- ii. Any and all losses arising from or incurred due to non-compliance by the supplier/seller/vendor/service provider of any GST provisions.

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT & BUSINESS ETHICS

This Supplier Code of Conduct and Business Ethics ("Code") has been formulated by GMR Group ("GMR") based upon the set of 'Values and Beliefs' and business practices that GMR follows. GMR values the relationship that it shares with all its vendors/ suppliers /service providers ("Suppliers") and believes in dealing with them in a fair and transparent manner. Similarly, GMR expects its Suppliers to comply with the terms set forth herein and also to ensure that there is transparency in their dealings in all their activities and sites worldwide.

1. Ethics and Integrity

In order to maintain high standards of social responsibility, all Suppliers are expected to conduct their business in an ethical manner and act with integrity.

a. Bribery and Corruption

The Supplier hereby warrant that, they will not, either themselves or through contractors or sub-contractors or through their agents/representatives, offer, promise or make any payment, gift, to any of GMR's employees, government officials or use other means to obtain an undue or improper advantage in a manner contrary to applicable laws (whether applicable in the place that the Supplier is situated in or elsewhere) and that, they have no knowledge that other persons who share a working relation with the Supplier's will, for the purpose of obtaining or facilitating the performance of, the contracts entered into between GMR and the Supplier's or such other connected contracts. Supplier shall uphold fair business standards in advertising, sales, and competition. Nothing in this Code shall however render GMR liable to reimburse the Suppliers' agents or their associates for any such consideration given or promised or for any consequences arising out of such action that is violative of the applicable laws or involves using corruptive measures.

b. Integrity

Supplier warrant that, the Suppliers and / or their contractors and / or sub-contractors and / or agents / representatives maintain high degree of integrity during the course of their dealings with GMR. If it is discovered at any time by GMR that any business/contract whether directly/indirectly connected to the contracts was procured by playing fraud or by misrepresentation or suppression of material facts, the contract entered into between GMR and Supplier shall be voidable at the sole option of the relevant entity of GMR. For avoidance of doubts, no rights shall accrue to the Suppliers in relation to such business/ contract and GMR or any entity thereof shall not have or incur any obligation in respect thereof. If such acts of the Suppliers result in defaming GMR or results in third party claims or actions being brought against GMR, then in such case, the supplier shall be required to indemnify GMR from and against any and all losses or damages suffered by GMR.

c. Conflict of Interest

Supplier' warrant that they shall not enter into a financial or any other relationship with a GMR employee that creates any actual or potential conflict of interest for GMR. For the purpose of this Code , a conflict of interest arises when material personal interests of the GMR employee are inconsistent with the responsibilities of his/her position with GMR. If any such conflicts are present, the same shall be disclosed and approved in advance by GMR management.

2. Labour Laws and Human Rights

Supplier are expected to protect the human rights of their employees/ workers and to treat them with dignity and respect and in this regard, the Supplier warrant that, in all of their activities, Supplier shall operate in full compliance with the laws, rules, and regulations of the countries in which they operate and shall ensure not to use any form of forced, bonded, indentured, or child labour.

a. Child labour

Suppliers shall not employ/encourage employment of children, falling under such age group that is prohibited from being employed by the applicable law, for providing of services either internally or outside the premises of the Suppliers.

b. Forced labour

Suppliers shall not use forced Labour. Supplier shall not force/coerce the employees/workers to work or demand services from the employees/workers under the threat of some sort of punishment especially in cases where, the employees/workers have not undertaken voluntarily to work for the Suppliers. All the services being provided by the Suppliers' employees/workers must be voluntary and the employees/workers shall be free to leave the work or terminate the employment with reasonable notice. Suppliers shall further ensure that, contracts for both direct and contract workers clearly convey the conditions of employment in a language understood by the employees/workers of the Suppliers. Where Suppliers shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses, the Suppliers shall make the required payment to their employees/workers.

c. Fair Treatment

Suppliers shall provide a workplace free from hard inhuman treatment, or even the threat of any such treatment, any sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment or other enforcement measures that compromise the individual's physical or mental integrity. Suppliers shall not threaten their employees/workers with or subject them to harsh or inhumane treatment, including sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment, mental coercion, physical coercion, verbal abuse or unreasonable restrictions on entering or exiting company-provided facilities.

d. Anti-discrimination

Suppliers shall provide their employees/ workers with a workplace free from harassment and/or deliberate discrimination or exclusion of preference made particularly on the basis of race, national origin, skin color, language, religion, caste, political affiliations, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, pregnancy and related medical conditions, military or veteran status, or on any other basis prohibited by applicable law.

e. Health and Safety

Supplier shall provide a safe and healthy working environment that poses no risk to health of the employees/workers working at their sites and ensure compliance with local and national regulations. Suppliers shall commit to creating safe working conditions and a healthy work environment for all of their workers.

f. Minimum Wages and Other Employee Benefits

Suppliers must pay the minimum salaries and employment benefits that are at least equal to the normal local salary or in compliance with minimum wages required by the applicable laws and regulations and provide all legally mandated benefits and satisfy all applicable employment laws.

3. Environment Protection

The Suppliers shall comply with all the applicable legal requirements, as well as with any existing industry standards and guidelines regarding the environment and sustainability, but at the very least (i.e. in the event that the legal requirements and/or any industry standards and/or guidelines are less stringent than the requirements below or do not exist at all) with the following requirement:

a) Resource Conservation and Emissions

Suppliers will use raw materials and natural resources in a responsible and economical manner and make every effort to reduce the consumption of energy (electricity, heating), water, and fuel by encouraging practices such as the modification of production, maintenance and facility processes, material substitution, conservation, recycling and material re-utilization, and further shall try to, reduce any associated emissions, try to use environment-friendly means of transport.

b) Hazardous Substances

Suppliers shall identify and manage substances that pose a hazard if released to the environment and comply with Applicable Laws and regulations for recycling and disposal. Suppliers shall ensure the safe handling, movement, storage, use, recycling and/or reuse and environment-friendly disposal of such substances, in their operations.

c) Improvement Objectives

Suppliers shall operate a systematic process of planning, training, implementation, monitoring and evaluation for review of the impact caused on the environment. Suppliers shall endeavour to use new progressive environmental technologies that lead to measurable improvements in terms of environmental impact (e.g. climate change).
